

Browse-All for Legislation

Researchers now have the option to review legislation (the entire Act or by Part) in a single document, instead of opening or delivering each section or clause individually. To use this feature, click on the browse all icon at the top of any legislation document.

The screenshot displays the WestlawNext Canada interface for the 'Bee Act' (R.S.A. 2000, c. B-2, s. 8). The document is presented in a single view, with a 'Browse All' icon (a magnifying glass over a document) highlighted by an orange arrow in the top left corner of the document area. The document content includes the following sections:

- Alberta Statutes
- Bee Act
- R.S.A. 2000, c. B-2, s. 8
- s 8. Problem bees
- Currency
- 8. Problem bees
- 8(1) If an apiculture inspector believes, on reasonable and probable grounds, that a bee disease or Africanized bees are present in any bees or beekeeping equipment, the apiculture inspector may, by written order, direct one or more of the following:
 - (a) that the affected bees and beekeeping equipment are to be under quarantine for the period of time and in the manner required by the order and that the movement by any person of bees and beekeeping equipment that are under quarantine is restricted;
 - (b) that the beekeeper take any steps necessary to eradicate the disease from the bees or beekeeping equipment.
 - (c) that the beekeeper treat the bees for bee disease.

20. Certain acts on holidays valid

A warrant or summons that is authorized by this Act or an appearance notice, promise to appear, undertaking or recognizance issued, given or entered into in accordance with Part XVI, XXI or XXVII may be issued, executed, given or entered into, as the case may be, on a holiday.

Parties to Offences

 C*21.*21(1) Parties to offence

Every one is a party to an offence who

- (a) actually commits it;
- (b) does or omits to do anything for the purpose of aiding any person to commit it; or
- (c) abets any person in committing it.

21(2) Common intention

Where two or more persons form an intention in common to carry out an unlawful purpose and to assist each other therein and any one of them, in carrying out the common purpose, commits an offence, each of them who knew or ought to have known that the commission of the offence would be a probable consequence of carrying out the common purpose is a party to that offence.
