

WestlawNext Canada Newsletter

April 2017

WHAT'S NEW

ProView Federated Search Launched

Beginning April 25th, Federated Search will allow you to search content on WestlawNext Canada together with supplemented eLooseleaf titles that are currently on ProView – all from within WestlawNext Canada. The new Federated Search feature incorporating ProView eLooseleaves allows you to find answers more quickly and efficiently – and help you discover relevant, authoritative commentary on the ProView platform.

Please contact Techsupport at 1-800-387-5164 (select option 2) if you encounter any issues with registering your OnePass to access ProView. Not a Thomson Reuters ProView Customer or need to confirm if you have access? Please contact your Sales Rep. Find out more.

For a complete list of titles available on Thomson Reuters ProView, please visit carswell.com/proview. For more information about this enhancement, please see our Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\) and watch a video »

New Personal Injury Practical Guidance module on Litigator

Beginning April 26th, Personal Injury Practical Guidance will be available and it will provide expert guidance on personal injury matters for both plaintiff and defence. Content includes practice notes, checklists, charts and standard documents as well as Merkur's Personal Injury Damages calculator that allows the quick assessment of personal injury claims using different assumptions.

This new module adds to the valuable resources already available for personal injury lawyers on Litigator. Litigator combines practice tools with litigation-focused research to support you in your most strategic decisions. It enables you to complete your work more easily, efficiently and effectively at every stage of the litigation process from research to attending at trial.

New Brunswick French Cases

As part of our commitment to continuously enhancing our content for a better customer experience, WestlawNext Canada now includes comprehensive coverage of all reported and unreported decisions – English and French – from mid-2001 to the present, that are available from the New Brunswick Court of Queen's Bench.

COMING SOON

Enhancement to Drafting Assistant - Litigation

New PDF Processing allowing for conversion of any PDF into a Microsoft Word document that can be analyzed and adapted with the powerful tools of Drafting Assistant.