WHAT'S NEW

ProView eLooseleafs and WestlawNext Canada Texts & Annotations Title Standardization

We have recently completed an initiative to standardize the titles of Texts & Annotations on WestlawNext Canada and eLooseleafs on ProView. The majority of title names remain unaffected, while others will receive changes such as removing articles from the beginning of titles (Ex: The), using consistent punctuation, removing secondary titles, and changing edition numbers from letters to numbers.

One of the standardization rules that we've applied is removing author names from titles, except for where the author name is officially part of the title. For example, in the case of Widdifield on Executors and Trustees, the author's name will remain in the title.

Having a consistent naming convention across both WestlawNext Canada and ProView eLooseleafs will improve the user experience for customers on both platforms. Now, with this more user-friendly standardization, browsing for titles on the WestlawNext Canada Texts & Annotations page will be much easier.

Some examples for reference are:

Current ProView Name	New Name across platforms
Anger & Honsberger Law of Real Property, Third Edition	Anger & Honsberger Law of Real Property, 3rd Edition
The Art and Science of Advocacy	Art and Science of Advocacy
Breathalyzer Law in Canada: The Prosecution and Defence of Drinking and Driving Offences, 4th Edition	Breathalyzer Law in Canada, 4th Edition

Current WestlawNext Canada Name	New Name across platforms
Seckel and MacInnis, British Columbia Supreme Court Rules Annotated	British Columbia Supreme Court Rules Annotated
Salhany, Canadian Criminal Procedure	Canadian Criminal Procedure, 6th Edition

Additionally, if a title is available in both ProView and WestlawNext Canada, both versions will now appear next to each other on the WestlawNext Canada Texts & Annotations page. We are pleased to offer this enhancement based on customer requests.

Indices will be conveniently found in the Table of Contents for a given title.

RESEARCH TIPS

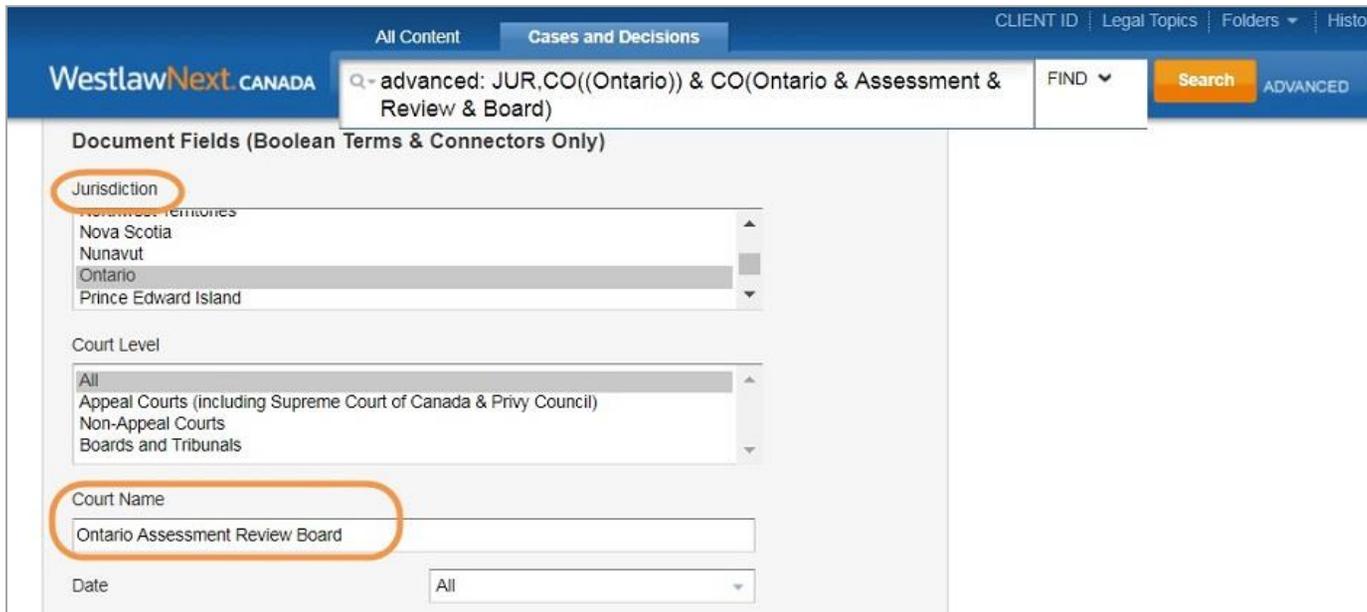

Did you know that you can restrict search results to a specific board or tribunal?

1. From the Cases and Decisions page, click on the ADVANCED search link in the top-right-hand corner

The screenshot shows the WestlawNext Canada interface. At the top, there are navigation links for 'All Content' and 'Cases and Decisions'. The search bar contains 'Q- Search Cases and Decisions' and a 'FIND' dropdown. To the right of the search bar is a 'Search' button and a circled 'ADVANCED' link. Below the search bar, there is a 'Home' link and a 'Cases and Decisions' heading with an 'Add to Favourites' star icon. A search tip reads: 'Search all Cases and Decisions content above or navigate to specific content below'. Under the heading 'By Jurisdiction', there are two links: 'Supreme Court of Canada & Privy Council' and 'Nova Scotia'. On the right side, there is a 'TOOLS & RESOURCES' section with a link to 'Find and KeyCite a Case by Name'.

2. From within the ADVANCED search template, type the name of the board or tribunal that you want to search. If you like, you can also restrict the jurisdiction by selecting one or more from the dropdown menu in the Jurisdiction field.

The screenshot shows the 'ADVANCED' search template in WestlawNext Canada. The search bar contains the query: 'advanced: JUR,CO((Ontario)) & CO(Ontario & Assessment & Review & Board)'. Below the search bar, there are several fields for refining the search. The 'Jurisdiction' dropdown menu is open, showing options: 'Newfoundland and Labrador', 'Nova Scotia', 'Nunavut', 'Ontario' (which is selected), and 'Prince Edward Island'. Below this is the 'Court Level' dropdown menu with options: 'All', 'Appeal Courts (including Supreme Court of Canada & Privy Council)', 'Non-Appeal Courts', and 'Boards and Tribunals'. The 'Court Name' field is filled with 'Ontario Assessment Review Board'. The 'Date' dropdown menu is set to 'All'.

3. Your result list will be restricted to decisions from your selected board and jurisdiction.

The screenshot displays the WestlawNext Canada search interface. At the top, the search bar contains the query: `advanced: JUR.CO((Ontario)) & CO(Ontario & Assessment & Review & Board)`. Did you know that you can still access cases from the Ontario Municipal Tribunal Reports using the old reporter name?

As we notified you in a recent edition of this newsletter, we have renamed the Ontario Municipal Board Reports (O.M.B.R) to the Ontario Municipal Tribunal Reports (O.M.T.R.), following a change in the legislation. This name change occurred in January 2019, so cases published on WestlawNext Canada since that date will have O.M.T.R. citations and will start with Volume 1 of the law report.

Despite the name change, there are still several ways to easily access the cases from the reporter using either the old or new name.

1. Find by Citation

Click on the Find dropdown menu at the end of the search box to access the Find by Citation field.

Then type in the citation for the case you want using either O.M.B.R. or O.M.T.R. to be brought directly into the document.

The old (OMBR) or new (OMTR) name will work equally well for your convenience.

The screenshot displays two search results. The first result is for 'Beaver Valley Planning Area Official Plan Amendment, Re' with citation '1976 CarswellOnt 1133 Ontario Municipal Board'. The search box on the left contains '6 O.M.T.R. 72'. The citation '6 O.M.B.R. 72' in the result is circled in orange. The second result is for 'Brian & Jayne LeGree v. Grey Highlands (Mun.)' with citation '2018 CarswellOnt 16771 Local Planning Appeal Tribunal'. The search box on the left contains '1 O.M.B.R. 514'. The citation '1 O.M.T.R. 514' in the result is circled in orange.

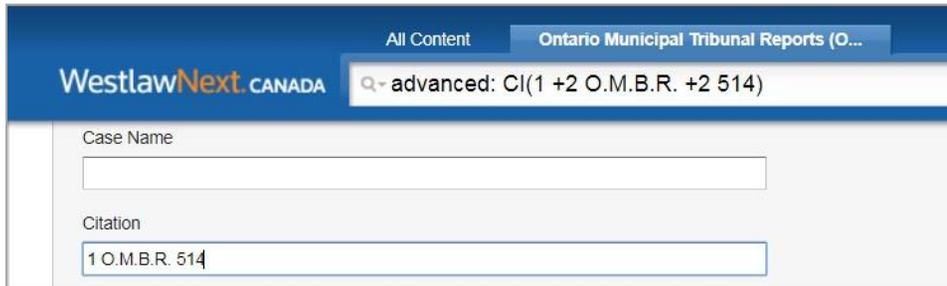

You can even type the citation right into the search box and it will also bring you immediately into the case document no matter which name you use.

The screenshot shows two search boxes. The left box has 'All Content' selected and 'Ontario Municipal Tribunal Reports (O...' in the dropdown. The search input contains '6 O.M.T.R. 72'. The right box has the same dropdown and search input containing '1 O.M.B.R. 514'.

2. Advanced Search Template

A second way to find your case is by using the Citation Field on the Advanced search template.

Simply type in your citation into the field and click Search.
